9 episodes x 60 minutes

After producing a number of unique detective dramas over the years, TV Asahi is now ready to unveil a new kind of comedy/mystery drama!

Tsukiko Otonashi is a fashionista that is too beautiful to be a detective. She's also into urban legends. So much so that she believes all kinds of crimes are somehow linked to the legends. She even conducts her investigations in such a way that tries to prove them to be true.

Tsukiko also likes to make use of whatever she can. She especially likes to enlist the help of crime lab officer Hiroto Katsuura, who also happens to have a crush on her. Hiroto is methodical and has a great memory. He's also obsessed with order and has a bad habit of trying to clean up crime scenes.

Many other unique characters will make appearances as unresolved crimes, with connections to urban legends, are investigated using odd and exquisite techniques.
